

SHIPPING POLICY

For stock items, Rezit aims to ship within 12 hours, 48 at weekends. If an item is required urgently, please email or telephone for stock availability.

Tracking Orders

All shipping is carried out by DHL, who use an online tracking system via their website.

We ship orders worldwide and prices are calculated on weight and country of destination once you enter your address details. All shipping prices include the cost of packing and within the EU, VAT (Tax) is added to the price of shipping. Once Rezit has shipped an order it is out of our control and we cannot guarantee any delivery times.

Export orders

Should an export licence be required, delivery will be dependant on the time taken by the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) to produce the licence.
